NOTE: (Please, turn over for the Note.)

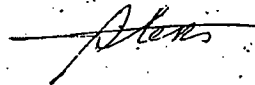

NOTE: When my baggage was weighed at Bangkok airport, it showed 10 Kg. overweight. The charge for this amount on the direct return trip would have been $ 104.02.

To reduce the expenses, I left some of my belongings back in Bangkok, to be forwarded by my friends later by sea. I left some more of my belongings with my sisters in Stockholm, to the effect that I had no overweight from Stockholm to New York.

As a result, the total charge for overweight via Europe amounted to $ 48.44, less than a half of the initial sum on direct return trip.

Group E shows the additional expenses which I had on my return via Europe. While the sum of these expenses and of the actual overweight charges together still do not reach the above mentioned sum of $ 104.02, and while my return via Europe was a normal continuation of this my "tourist trip", I dare to ask that some consideration be given to the coverage of the expenses mentioned in Group E of this report.

Addition: 20 expense documents, and my explanation and/or declaration about the expenses not covered by documents.
